Job Title: Market & Grant Finance Analyst

Job Reference Code: M001

Noor Medical

Noor Medical is a startup dedicated to developing market-based ecosystems of care for safe surgery. By providing medical equipment to sterilize medical instruments, with capability to work in a variety of operational contexts, we are working towards improving the provision of safe surgery in rural and off-grid medical clinics

What we are looking for?

- Experience in conducting market research and strength in identifying relevant sources of information.
- Highly motivated individual who is interested in conducting research in the following areas:
 - Healthcare in low-resource contexts (with a focus on surgical access)
 - Healthcare clinic access and the networks responsible for providing care.
 - Data mining and big data in the realm of healthcare in Low and Middle-Income Countries (LMIC).

Key Responsibilities:

- Building Noor Medical's understanding of healthcare market conditions in target countries.
- Provide reports, presentations, and recommendations with explanation of findings to inform business decisions and identify new opportunities.
- Drafting grant application materials and identifying grant opportunities, especially in Germany and Europe, to support the development of social enterprises.
- Supporting the management in ad hoc tasks.

Minimum Skills & Experience

- At least 1 year of experience drafting reports, grant applications, or similar documentation.
- Demonstrated analytical skills in a business or non-profit context.
- Fluency in German and English
- Very good knowledge of MS Office (MS Excel).
- Advantageous skills & experience include:
 - Fluency in French.
 - >1 year of experience working in a healthcare context.
 - Demonstrated ability to manage projects and be a self-directed learner.

What can we offer?

- Diverse experiences in a young start-up, insights into a wide range of responsibilities
- Flexible working hours
- Attractiveness to include startup working experience within your CV
- Visibility on our website
- Mini-job compensation
